Dear Professor S Joeberg:

It is now exactly three months since I had the great pleasure and privelege of visiting the Museum, meeting you personally and having you do the translation of my Sumerian tablet. You have no idea how much all of this meant to me, and how my letter thanking you seems so grossly inadequate.

I held off writing you since when I visited you indicated you were leaving two days hence for a two month trip to Sweden. I trust by now you are back at the Museum, and I hope your trip

Dear Ake,

Thank you very much for your file cards on note. I still have one card on note, which I shall put on the computer when I come back in September.

I hope you spent a nice and relaxing holiday and that you had a pleasant returning flight.

I look forward to see you soon,

Best wishes to you and Gail Margaret.
